PROJECTS

- Advanced Biometric Security System for Automated Teller Machine Transactions

The Advanced Biometric Security System for Automated Teller Machine Transactions is a new system that uses machine learning algorithms to provide accurate and efficient facial recognition to prevent fraudulent ATM transactions. The system uses Deep Neural Network and Support Vector Machine algorithms and is designed to work with a standard ATM interface. The system is implemented using the OpenCV and Torch libraries, which provide tools for image processing, computer vision, and deep learning. The system's accuracy analysis shows that it can identify the user with an accuracy of 80% making it highly secure and reliable. The system provides enhanced security, reduced transaction times, and a user- friendly interface, making it a valuable development in the field of ATM security. The system aims to create a highly secure and efficient ATM system that uses the latest facial recognition and machine learning technologies to improve the overall user experience.
